“ Growing up I remember with fondness the frequent trips we took to Gilmer from Grand Prairie. I thought Aunt Adell was super cool. Wayne was younger than I and I remember many special occasions and Holidays spent with them. I regret that we didn't get together during these last couple of years but will always remember my dear cousin with fondness. Rest In Peace Wayne, I know there were several of my loved ones that were so very happy to see you.
Love and prayers for Kathy, Lana and your sweet children and grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

“ My big brother. When I was little, I know I got on his last nerve. When I got older, he got on my last nerve! He would pick on me mercilessly and then give me the biggest hug and melt my heart. We didn't talk much but we knew the other one was there if needed. He fought hard through his illness with strength and determination. I'm going to miss him but I know our mother was thrilled to see her boy!
