“ A little over 3 weeks ago we lost our brother. He called me every day. Always asked about family and friends. Strange as it may seem many times as I've driven listening to my Serieold stations I have daily heard an Oldie regarding Bill. One that comes to mind is Don't Mess with Bill. The one I heard today was by the Poppies or some group like that. Ya know I kinda think it's my daily call from MY BROTHER IS MAKING HIS DAILY CALL. SO THANKFUL FOR OUR YEARS TOGETHER

“ Bill and I were the best of friends from 4 years old. We did everything together. From learning to ride our clay wheel skateboards to earning some extra cash. We would pull weeds, collect soda bottles and even gather the golf balls hit over the fence and then sell them back to golfers. Once we were done for the day we would go down to the liquor store to buy and share an RC cola. We even got into trouble together. One time that comes to mind was when his brother Frank was stripping the wax off of his surfboard. All the old was removed and the new applied when me and Bill found some razor blades and began removing the wax. We thought it looked pretty cool curling up. Frank didn't think so and, boy, was he mad.

Even when we moved away from Bellflower we still managed to get together from time to time. As things go, as we both grew up we grew apart and went our separate ways.

Bro, you are my best friend and I will see you again some day. Until then, may you rest in peace.

“ This man was such a kind-hearted individual who just wanted to good and to be there for everybody. He had experienced some hard times in his life but he seemed to make the best of them all. He had so many people who loved him, I really didn't think he realized that. But we all know he was a great person with so much love in his heart. He always managed to call me and leave a message every birthday, Christmas, Mother's Day , or just to say thank you for a gift, or card he received from us. Sometimes he would just call to say "I love you, Lori, and I hope you're doing good"! I will greatly miss you Bill! I will see you again someday, in heaven!
