“ Bill was a kind individual. He was always willing to help no matter what or when needed. He was energetic and full of unexpected impulses. One night we were walking down a neighborhood street. Bill suddenly bolts off in the dark. It startled me so that I froze in my footsteps. I heard a rustling and soon he comes back holding an opossum by the tail, grinning with boyish innocence. Bill enjoyed life as it came. I believe he tried to accomplish something of worth each day. I'm sure his uniqueness will be missed by everyone who knew him. May God Bless his family.
