“ I got to know Mrs Sams through my sister and brother in law. She was always so sweet and full of laughter! One memory that stands out is my first trip to Tres Dias retreat - I remember making eye contact with her during one of the events and she starting praying for me- very strong emotional moment and weekend!! She was filled with the word of God and love to share it! ❤️❤️ T Parks

“ I first met Blannie at a most memorable event- the wedding of our daughter and her son. My next most vivid memory is of the birth of my first grandson which we shared. We shared many good family moments thru-out our relationship during our long lives. Even though she will be missed by so many I know she now resides with our Lord God in Heaven. Prayers to all the family. Betty Gunn, Picayune, MS

“ This is for all of Aunt Sis kids. I have lots of fond memories of Sis but when I remember this memory it always put a big smile on my face and I hope it does the same for all you kids even in this time of sadness and mourning. This goes back to when you all lived in Gary, Indiana just to let you know how long ago it was. You all came back to Tennessee to visit Granny and then came down to visit mom and dad. Uncle Jim and aunt Shirley came over too so we had a house full. Mom had custody of Winston and Herbie who were still babies at that time. Mom had fixed hamburgers and hot dogs for supper. The kitchen was full of everybody fixing their food. Aunt Sis said "somebody check that babies diaper I think Winston has messed, I smell something". Randy who was her favorite one of all us 5 boys was standing near Winston said "I will." As Randy passed the table her grabbed the mustard and put some on his index finger then bend over like he was pulling the back of Winstons diaper open then raised up and showed Sis his finger and stuck his finger in his mouth and licked it off and said "Yep he sure did." Poor Sis started gagging trying so hard not to barf. I will never forget the look on her face. It was a look of total shock and disbelief at what she thought she had saw. Randy being Randy looked at Sis with a big smile on his face and said "Sis it's mustard" then Sis instantly flew mad and said "Boy I will beat your butt off for doing that to me." Randy being Randy walked over to Sis and gave her a great big hug and all was forgiven. That's the Sis I loved and remember. I hope you all have thanked God for the Mother He gave you because He gave you a Gem. I've said this before and I'll say it again "When you lose your Mom you've lost the best friend you'll ever have on this side of life." As much hurt and saddness as you all are feeling right now never forget that thru Jesus Christ we have the hope of being together with our loved ones again on the other side of life. I love you all, your cousin Butch.
