“ I think the world of you, cousin Pat and I always will. Growing up across the pond from you and your family, I miss the days when I would hear your shot gun going off. Everyone knew you were shooting at snakes or turtles in your pond. Makes me smile thinking about it. Dad always got excited when y'all would visit or have long talks. I'm sure y'all are already catching up together in heaven. We love you and our heart goes out to the family during this time. You are truly a remarkable memory.
