“ Just thinking of all the time Doug and I would go fishing especially around this time and in summer. I miss him so much! Just want him to come home and say "hey wanna go fishing tonight?"

“ It's not a specific memory...Doug was two grades behind me and his sister Stephanie was always a good friend and the memory I have is Doug being a boy...teasing, causing trouble, always starting up something. But those turn out to be the leaders in life which seems to be the case with Doug. Being a dad, a friend, a brother, a fiance, a son, nephew, a cousin, an uncle...the best way he could. God couldn't ask for more than that. Neither should we. More earthly angels are being called home. The Bible says that will finish what He starts, He will complete his work in us. I think to think when we lose a loved one, that simply that loved one has already mastered on Earth what God had planned, His work was completed and now it's time for the real beginning in the Heaven's. The work has just begun again, a new training...warrior training. I wish you all peace that surpasses understanding and love to comfort your hearts.

“ My deepest sympathy for Jennifer and Hanna, and Doug's entire family. What a great loss for each and every one of you, including my daughter Stacey, who played softball with him for years, always loving his company. From the first visit I had with Doug, he stole a little bit of my heart. He could raise your spirits if you were low and each time I saw him, he was kind to everyone around him. He always greeted me with a big bear hug and I knew I could have gladly claimed him as one of my own grandsons. We lost a fine man and he took a big chunk of my heart with him.

“ We have never loaned our 70K dollar Skeeter boat out to anyone. It means so much to us. But in May 2017, you had a fishing tournament to fish and the boat you were using was out of commission. You were talking to Scott on the phone and Scott offered you the use of our boat. That is how much we thought of you. You were such a good guy. You were raised right. It was yes ma'am and yes sir. You brought that boat back clean as a whistle and full of gas. I've known you most of your life Doug, since you went to school with Misti. I've always loved your personality. I'm gonna miss you so much. Fly with the angels sweetheart.
