“ She was the best grandma. Some of the staples she knew we loved and so she cooked them often was "rice and gravy" which was beef tips and rice, always with lima beans. She made the best gumbo, and spaghetti with meat sauce was another favorite. She loved her diet Pepsi. She collected angels, she loved to cross stitch, paint and sew. I was lucky enough to have a few items she made for me. I'll never forget the trip we took in 1998 traveling with a pop up across TX and all the way West to California and up into Oregon and Washington, we had the best time just hanging out at the campsites. She loved a good shopping trip, the stores with a lot of different trinkets were her favorites, she passed the love of a good trinket down to me. She lives on through her kids and grandkids. She had some great personality traits that most definitely passed on to us. Love you grandma, forever and ever.

“ Not only have I lost my beautiful, loving and fun-loving aunt but I’ve lost my “running buddy” and special friend. She had a beautiful, sweet laugh and used it often.

She and Uncle Ronnie happily made room in their home for me when I relocated from Michigan to Texas. We always had a good time!

I’m heartbroken and can’t believe she’s gone. I want to pick up the phone and call her and then remember - she’s comfortably in the arms of Jesus. No more pain and sorrow for this precious soul. I love you so much, Aunt Mimi❤️❤️❤️🙏

“ Mama was the best Mother you could be blessed with. She loved to sew me clothe's, she spoiled me with an outfit every week. Sometime more than one outfit a week. Beautiful inside and out. Her family was everything to her. She was always home when we came home from school. And always had dinner cooked every evening, she loved having all of us around the dinner table. I know that she is with my Daddy now and at peace. Love you forever Mama. You will live on in my heart.

Your daughter, Michelle
