“ He would laugh to hear me say , “i have no words”. But tonight, i don’t, because there are none. I knew you since i was 14 yrs old, you married my best friend, and we all loved to laugh. God i’m praying wherever you are, it’s somewhere where you are laughing. So many memories. I’m so sorry Andrea. 💔

PS

“ Danny Joe talked often about his love, respect and memories of his two daughters, Mandy and Rianna. His greatest joy was watching them laugh and cut-up. He was so proud of his grandchildren and their amazing accomplishments. His last wish was to take Dake fishing and make him a cane pole. He made me promise not to tell Andrea that she was the "best wife" a man could have. So, Danny Joe, I never told her; I put it in writing!
