““Dad Dave” was an exceptional man who made my Mother very happy. I will always treasure his stories, jokes, music, and putting a little “country” into my children’s lives. I will also treasure the many friendships formed through David. Plan on.

“My thoughts and sympathy go out to David’s family and many friends xx I only met David once many years ago and remember him as being warm, welcoming and a lover of life and people. I loved hearing the tales of his and Gareth’s meetings whenever Gareth visited the States. A massive void will be left in his community xx

“ David was a man whom you could meet once and feel like you had known a lifetime. A man full of such life and exuberance, he could make anyone feel happy and loved. From the very first time I met David he welcomed me like family, making me laugh and smile in the first 10 minutes more than anyone I had ever met before. I speak from my heart when I say I feel privileged to have met David and I will carry the wonderful memories I have of him and our times together for the rest of my life, rest peacefully. All my Love Natalie. x

“ David was a special friend to me even though we lived 5000 miles apart, I feel honoured to have known him and shared so many good times. He opened his heart and life to me, which I will treasure forever. We shared so many jokes, stories and drinks, we laughed till we cried. David was "Pops" to me and I was his "Sonny Boy". My life was enriched greatly by David. Words can not express how much I will miss him. All my Love "Pops", Gareth.

“ I would like to be in Gilmer to show support to the family of my buddy, Squeeze Box Dave. At this point, it's not likely that I will be able to attend. My life has been made better having known Dave and sharing his friendship. I wish to convey my deepest condolences to Dave's family and friends during this difficult time for us all.

“ David “Squeeze” Lefebvre was one of a kind. He was witty and wily, as well as thoughtful and caring; a friend of many, a best friend to a few. Friends and family will miss the “Squeeze-man Serenades” on birthdays, St. Patrick’s Day, Independence Day, and Christmas; his special appearances with his squeeze-box during local musician jam sessions and gigs. We will miss his famous smoked ribs and his “just checking in” phone calls; we will miss his stories, his sense of humor and his laughter, his generous spirit. We will miss the man. Dave Lefebvre is inextricable from my memories of my own father, I now miss both men...I always will.

“ My Dad knew how to light up a room. Everyone who knew him liked him. He was good to me from the days of tying me to a tree so I could roast marshmallows while he went rabbit hunting to the many trips we took as a family growing up. What I am forever grateful for is that he loved me through the thick and thin. I can't imagine my life without him and I love him more then words can say. As he and I would say to each other....I Love you this much.....Love you, your baby ,Buryldean
