“ I first remember Dennis & Donald as little boys with short crew cuts, wrestling in the floor on a visit to Sidney Fleetwoods, not sure but I think it was our house, maybe at Poppy's. They were a force to be reckoned with, never a dull moment!

About a week before Dennis passed, he sent me a photo by Messenger, of him & some of his kids, saying one looked like his grandpa Guy & my dad, Ray. Last time I saw him, & Betty, was when my sister & I attended a funeral & we had a chance to talk at the graveyard awhile.

Our sympathy & thoughts of you all is sent to all who are missing Dennis.

Love,

Cathy Mae

“ I met Dennis many years ago and he was always a good guy to me. We would camp on our vacation property and he would cook us breakfast. He was the first to introduce me to boudin sausage. Prayers to his family and friends.

“ I knew Dennis when he grew up and lived in Hattieville. He, like all of us, had his faults, but when it came down to it, he was there for family and friends. He had my back on a couple of occasions and proved this to me. RIP Dennis. Prayers for the family.
