“ As his Sister-in-law, I have many fond memories of “Big Don”, as he was known. The Lord brought him into my Sister’s life when, as a widow trying to raise two boys, he was a great blessing. Not only did he quickly assume the role of a Dad, he was also loved by his Grandchildren. He so enjoyed his hunting trips and was always looking to share memoirs of his adventures! Tho’ he will certainly be missed, we can have the peace in knowing he’s with our dear Savior and no longer in pain.
