“ I have many fond memories of Donna smiling laughing and enjoying life. Her love for her family and friends and for buckeye football. What an honor to see the tribute you made to her through pictures, music , and memorabilia. She was a lovely person with so much charm. I will greatly miss her. It's funny how one person touches your life just by being in it. ”

“ Jim David, heart felt sympathy to you and family on the loss of Donna. God got her room ready and now she awaits for loved ones. God bless us all on our continued journey and may the God of peace engulf you with the peace that He is in control and knows what is best. When our loved ones become a memory, those memories become our treasures. She will always be as close as your memories. Much prayer for your strength.
