“ Your Mom was a sweet and precious lady. When our grief seems almost too much to bear and we are weighed down with heavy care, our sweet Jesus whispers, "Peace."

“ I have lost a good friend. Corine was a very close friend of my deceased wife, Janice Cox and of our whole family. Corine gave Janice a lot of coloring books which Janice enjoyed enormously before her passing. I also worked with Bobby at Eastman. Clayton and Corine will be always remembered by us.

“ I first met my sweet great aunt while she was living at Holly Lake. We had talked several times on the phone before that and she just stole my heart. She was a sweet, sincere lady with a great faith in the Lord and loved her family. We all will miss her. She is with her sweetheart, Clayton, and in the arms of her Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ I am sorrowful for the earthly passing of Corine, but I rejoice she is in the presence of our Lord and no longer struggling with the cares and temporal issues of this life. It was my privilege to be the Henrys' pastor from 1973-1981 at Little Mound. I have great respect for this family. May the Holy Spirit be a Great Comforter to you at this time.
