“ During the eulogy this morning, there was so much I wanted to say but my emotions got in the way. I'm going to miss my daily chats with Elmer. He was more than just a father in law to me. He was my confidant and friend. We shared many interests and genuinely enjoyed each other's company whether we were sitting in a blind in the woods, driving down an old country road or sitting at the dining room table. There won't ever be another man like him. I pray God wraps his arms around Elmer and gives him the peace he so much deserved. God bless you Elmer. To Anita, Kelly and Charlotte, I'm sorry for your loss and I pray you find peace that your Dad is in a better place now.

“ Elmer was my brother-in-law, Wayne Ball's brother. About 45 years ago the two brothers owned a construction company and built houses and some commercial developments throughout Central Arkansas. Their father, A.C. Ball and Ronnie McAlester (a cousin I believe), along with my brother Eddie and I all worked with Elmer and Wayne at the time. Elmer was an excellent "old School" carpenter. He was always an easy going soft spoken guy, and was as good and genuine as people can be. He'll be remembered and missed by all those that knew him. I give my heartfelt condolences to the family and friends.
