“ To the Haney Family —

Garry left footprints. He came into my life early on, and he treated me like one of his sons. He was among the first adults in my life who made me feel ... important. Not only will I live the rest of my days with Garry as a mentor, but I have also passed some of his wisdom to my own children.

My last visit with him was a few years ago when I came to Longview. He was — as it turns out — wrapping up his time at Made-Rite. What a wonderful conversation we had in that grocery store! Garry was so proud of his family, and those people who had become "family" through the years. He leaves such a wonderful and loving legacy.

I love all of you, and I pray for your peace.

Garry was a special man inside and out. We opened our store shortly before he started to work for Made Rite. There is lots of memories from all the years we worked together. My Bill will be waiting to welcome him into heaven, where if it was anyway, Garry will be hanging a sign or building a display. A true Christian man that was always sharing his faith. Glad I have memories that brings a smile to my face. Prayers for the family and know that he will be missed by lots of friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss but heaven has gained a special man. We have such fond memories of him and your family at Liberty. Garry was our Sunday School teacher when we were in a young married couples class. Was always a delight to run into him around town. He always talked about his boys and his beloved JoAnn with such pride. He gave me a little Dr. Pepper patch when our daughter was born. Sending love and prayers to your family during this time of grief.
