“ Scotty was a good person and was like the big brother I never had. He was always smiling and had a suspicious laugh no one could resist. I could hardly wait for the first week in October to come around for the "gang" to go fishing and camping for a week at Lake Fork. Those are the best memories. Bob and I loved all or fishing trips with Scotty and Chatolette. Never a dull moment when we got together at the lake. Bob and Scotty were like brothers for over 40 years at work and outside of work. They were like bestie as far as guys go. Scotty will be so missed by everyone who knew him. I'll miss my big brother Scotty, but I know we'll see him again. Rest in peace. We love you.

“ He was my daddy, my hero, the man I confided in and trusted for advise. A man of few words, but he was very wise. He taught me how to swim, how to fish, took me on my very first ride on a sailboat, taught me to ski and tube, he taught me respect and showed me how to live life, among other things. He had a heart for service. He knew how to treat people. He was always there for me, even when he shouldn't have. And he gave the best hugs. Can't wait to see him once again so he can wrap his arms around me as only a daddy can do. I love you daddy and miss you more than words can express. I'm heartbroken but am comforted by knowing that you are fishing and able to do all the things you so wanted to do, plus you get to dance with Jesus. Save a place for me daddy, I want the first dance when I get there. XO

“ I worked with Scotty 30 years, always a class act. I fished in tournaments to try To complete with Scotty. He would sometimes show up late for tournament and still win. He was the guy that we all liked and admired. Thanks for the memories, Nolan Lewis

“ I went to high school with Scotty. He was a great guy who I always enjoyed being around. I am sad that the world lost a good soul. Prayers for his family. Kay Crawford Nolte

My heart is broken for Charlotte and family. I always enjoyed working with Scotty at the Rexam plant and keeping in touch picking up eggs from this precious couple through the years . They were always out and about doing something and Scotty always a kind hearted gentleman. I am so sorry Charlotte , I just heard yesterday from Casey Mathis. Praying for comfort in cherished memories.
