“ Dearest Georgia. We were classmates in Oklahoma City in 1969-1970. She was my friend. Guys would ask her for a date but she politely said, "No. I have a boyfriend in Texas." One night she asked me for a ride to the bus station so she could get to Texas. I did and she always remembered that as a great favor. We had a few contacts later in the years. She was proud of her husband and his music. So loving and proud of her three daughters. She took over owning a restaurant at a lake. The food was fantastic. She always had a smile on her face and true kindness in her heart. Heaven was made for her. Her love shall never die nor be forgotten. To know her ever shall be an honor and privilege. Georgia, you make Heaven a better place. Love always, BJ.

“ Georgia you came to Florida with us crazy girls! You had us looking for you at the drum circle on the beach...your face was priceless...you fell in love with the ocean and who would of thought the big oak tree in mom and dad's backyard! Thank you for taking us all in and being there for Becky ...thank you for feeding us when we came. You will be missed but so loved by everyone. May the angels hold your family tighter to help give them comfort. May god bless you all.
