“ I know it's a little late but he will always be one of my favorite uncles and I will Alexis miss him and love him. When I seen the picture of him you added it reminded me of when I was a kid and the last time I seen him before coming back to Texas as an adult. I love you uncle Gilbert. May you RIP

Thank you for the photos. I never had a photo of grandma and grandpa or one of them all together and now I do. I know it was a gift from uncle Gilbert. I love you all. Sending prayers from Washington.

“ Always junking with his sister Delcia and Chad Hudson and the loong coffee breaks they talked about. Making fried pies with Delcia. Him and Joanie playing baseball with nieces and nephews. Him and Joanie getting married and my dad and his nephew riving up motorcycle and mom kept sending us to back door tell them stop becuz u cldnt hear preacher. Eventually they got Danny's hands and held them between them while they said their vows. Lots of great memories and lots of hard times but grateful he was there for our mother, Delcia if and when she needed him.
