“ It is beautiful to see the photos of Haley's wonderful, joyful life. Haley was 14 years old when I visited from Australia, and my memory of her was of a gentle, caring young lady who loved her family. She is blessed with a wonderful extended family, who are loving and supporting each other now and in the future. This love and support from family, friends and her community is what will sustain her family for the times when she will be missed so much. Haley, we miss you from the other side of the world and pray for your heartbroken family, friends and community. Love to all of you. xx

“ I don't know you personally, nor did I have the privilege of knowing your special girl, but as the mother of a 2016 graduate, I can't imagine how hurt and heartbroken you must be. I just wanted to tell you I am praying for you and your family, and to share some comfort from God's Word.

3 "And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him. 4 They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads. 5 There shall be no night there: They need no lamp nor light of the sun, for the Lord God gives them light. And they shall reign forever and ever." Rev 22:3-5.

“ I found out only this week that Haley was baptized March 1 (my birthday) of her senior year, yet I saw the change in her. If she kept the graduation card I gave her in a memory book, please read the message I was inspired to share with her. She was such a great example to others, and I love her so dearly. I know she is with the Savior. I will try to follow her example and smile a little more, have fun in all things, and lift others with the light of Christ. Jennifer Jones

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so man things to see and do.
You mustn't tie your self to me with tears.
Be thankful for our beautiful years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
how much you gave me in happiness...
Thank you for the love you each have shown,
but now it is time I traveled alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
then let your grieve be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear.
All my love around soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,

“ I knew Haley thru Etex. She was a very bright beautiful young lady. We found out we were near neighbors. I talked to her last Tuesday I never dreamed it would be our last conversation. I have a tiny Chihuahua puppy that she always made a big deal of her. I am so sorry the Lord needed another bright shining angel to call home! We never know God plan, and at times like these it so very hard to understand. May God bless you and your family at this time! May he wrap his arms around you and carry you this time of mourning.

I am sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter. I pray that God will give you comfort in the days to come. He is the only one that can ease the terrible pain that you never get over. There is a good thing you do know that she is with Her Almighty God. That has to give you a lot of comfort and know that you will be seeing her again some day. God bless your family and I pray that you can find peace soon,
