“ Israel fue un niño muy alegre, trabajador, humilde, y amoroso. Siempre con una sonrisa grande pero sus ojos verdes eran cosa de otro mundo. Su corazón noble y amoroso siempre lo recordaré. Su paciencia de jugar con niños pequeños como mi Sophia y Víctor era inigualable. Lo querían mucho y lo seguiremos queriendo y recordando el resto de nuestras vidas. Hasta pronto bebé hermoso, vuela alto y disfruta la felicidad eterna. 🕊️💔

“ *The last time I spoke with Israel was a few weeks ago he and his brother came to the fence and he asked me if I could open the barn door so his Dad could get a tank out so he could use it to spray the field for goat weed I told them that they were really growing up I will always remember that wonderful smile he gave me at that moment
❤️ We will miss you so much With Love Elizabeth and Stan 1650*

“ My heart just breaks for this beautiful family. I never saw Nacho without that big smile and his cowboy hat. Always a hello wave and smile everywhere I ran into him. Or when him and the kiddos came to their property next to us. Conversations over the fence I loved it and his kiddos played with our dogs. I will miss seeing him. RIP Nacho and Israel Father and Son forever together walking the streets of gold with smiles and I would bet his cownoy hat as well. God takes the good too early.

“ Such a precious family and good neighbors. Nacho would always speak and wave when he saw us and the children always waved as passing the house on their ATV. Prayers for Ana and the children in the times ahead.
