

James Roy Brown

January 4, 1942 - December 11, 2022

James Roy Brown, age 80, of Gilmer, Texas passed away after a long illness, Sunday, December 11, 2022.

James was born January 4, 1942, to William Arnold Brown and Marcell Cogdill Brown in Tulia, Texas. James spent the first 18 years of his life in Silverton, Texas. He graduated from Texas Tech University in 1965 with a degree in Textile Engineering. His whole career was spent in the textile industry with most of that time spent in Gilmer, Texas. James owned B & K Industries which was known locally as “The Gilmer Sewing Factory”. He had great respect and appreciation for all of the employees. He was also a member of the Rotary Club in Gilmer.

James is survived by his daughter, Amy Ross and husband Philip; daughter, Monica Luscomb; sister, Rita Hughes; grandchildren, Nathan Ross, Matthew Ross, Mason Luscomb, Lauren Luscomb, and Ashton Luscomb.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Martha Brown; son, Corey Brown; parents, Arnold and Marcella Brown; paternal grandparents, H. Roy and Mary Brown; maternal grandparents, Pat and Carabell Codgill.

A private family service will be held in Silverton, Texas at a later date.

Please visit James’ online registration book at www.mcwhorterfh.com to leave a memory for the family.

Tribute Wall

LB

“ prayers sent ”

LANCE Kyle BERGSTRESSER - April 29 at 04:09 PM

LB

“ James was a very nice man and a very caring, compassionate boss. Many wonderful memories were made at The Gilmer Sewing Factory!!! Love and Prayers to Amy, Monica and all James' family and friends!!! ”

Linda Shaw Bond - January 02, 2023 at 07:25 PM

Linda, thank you for your kind words about James. He respected and cared about all of you at the Sewing Factory. Rita Hughes (James's sister)

Rita Hughes - January 06, 2023 at 05:59 PM