“ Jim was a highly intelligent individual with a mentality of thinking outside the box. The core of his heart was reserved for family and friends. He contributed guidance with clarity and realistic detail for those in need with zero hesitation. He believed that no matter what you say or do, you do it correctly and properly. He will be dearly missed.

“ "Uncle Jim" was a bedrock person in so many lives. In the toughest times he would be there and would have good perspective, better advice, and a laugh to share. He made life easier to navigate. It seems like he is gone far too soon even at 76 years old.

*Jim Marlowe was an honorable man who was immensely devoted and dedicated to his family. His kindness and consideration of others was a strong character trait. Jim's intelligence, coupled with his common-sense approach to life's problems, served him well. The Peace of Christ is with him. We will miss him.

“ Jim was a fellow classmate of mine at Clay High School. He was at our 50th class reunion and he enjoyed them so much. When he would come back to Ohio to visit family we would call the people who were still in Portsmouth and meet up and go out to dinner. So sorry to read about his passing. The last time we messaged he said I will be seeing you soon. I know he loved his family very much.
Prayers for all. Jim and Sharon Cooper
