“ When I read of Jan's passing this morning, it stirred many fond memories of this man who's company it was always a pleasure to share. I was a patient of his many years ago during his dental practice. His humorous, plainspoken presence and upbeat personality eliminated much of the stress that usually accompanies a visit to a dentist chair, and I remember leaving his office determined to remember a joke he told or funny story he related. Decades later, I was privileged to teach his kids Jana and Jason at Gilmer High School and to be their coach for the high school golf team. Janvan's influence and humor was clearly evident in their strong personalities and dry wit, and interactions with them, as with their dad, kept me on my toes and a smile, (sooner or later), on my face. His is a strong legacy and our world is better place for Janvan Jenkins having shared it with us.

God Bless and God's Peace to his wonderful family.
