Oh I just found out when I saw this and began to cry. I did not know he had passed. As I watched this tribute I began to smile knowing he is with his beloved wife Glenda. Thanks for all the love you showed to me and Rip. We love you and will miss you. Fly high with the Angels!!! Run through the fields of heaven with no wheels on your feet, and stand tall as the honorable man that you are. You were a great example to me. My heart is so heavy today. So long, till we meet again my friend.

“ Jimmy Stroupe was a faithful and stalwart disciple of Jesus Christ. He was a very loving and friendly man. He attended every service project that we had in Gilmer, even though he could not do much, he was always there supporting everyone else. I am thankful that I was able to know him and Glenda, and call them friends. What a marvelous reunion they must have had on the other side. Rest in peace Jimmy. We love you!

“ Jim is a genuinely nice man. A great example of the truth that you cannot control what life throws at you, but you can control your response to it.
