Oh my, I didn't remember you two married on my birthday! I remember visiting your house when you lived on 155 right up the road. Doesn't seem like it's been very long. You both have always been together and so many memories have been made since that early beginning. Love you and your sweet smile and Jimmy's quiet way. He always spoke to you and had something positive to say. He was a good friend. Stacia

I have known Jimmy and Donna since Batina was a small baby. They joined our church and were faithful members. Jimmy was a good usher and was so good at making everyone feel welcome. His smile and sincere interest in everyone and their families was what Jimmy was all about. He dearly loved his family and was devoted to seeing the ball games they participated in. He will be missed. We love you Donna , Batina and Amber . You are in our prayers.
