“ I met Mr. Shrewsbury in a doctor's office. They called Shrewsbury and we both got up. We had never met but both shared the same last name. I was acquainted with his son, Mark. We both left the office at exactly the same time. We had a long conversation and really enjoyed each others company. I am very sad to hear of his passing and I want to express my condolences to all the family. May God be close to you as you grieve.

“ Dear Family,

You do not know us, but we were privileged to know John and Judy for several years. We met them through events that we all attended. They both were very special people, and were loved by many. John will be greatly missed for years to come, just as Judy is still missed today. May God bless and keep you all.
