“ I've been staring at this for what seems like forever. My precious Maw maw.... Words can't describe what you mean to me... My heart is broken over the loss of you but my soul rejoices knowing your with our Lord and Savior. I know we will see each other again one day and there will be no more tears. Till then I'll hold you close in my heart always and cherish the memories of our time together. I'll miss you everyday. I love you with all that I am.

“ I remember when you, me, Adam, and the kids all went to Walmart to get you some things, and we put you in the car seat buggy looking thing and Adam was rolling you around like a nascar driver. :) Getting to spend time with you and having everybody visit was so special to me, because you were such a special person. I always felt lighter when I was around you or talking to you on the phone. The way you treated my family showed me so much about what kind of person you were. So caring and selfless. Even with the minimal visits we did have, and the stories Adam would tell me about you raising him, it took no time for the love I have for you to grow so deeply. You are a one in a million person Mawmaw and you will never be forgotten. I know you're much happier where you are now, and knowing that helps give me peace. We love you.
