“ Brother Junior will be missed at Oak Hill MBC but heaven gained a great angel. The three things I will always remember are (1) Brother Junior was a hard man to beat to the church! He always made sure he was there early enough to greet everyone. (2) He will always be remembered for singing "and many more" at the end of every birthday and anniversary song- and I believe he meant it every time. (3) From the earliest time I remember Brother Junior coming to Oak Hill he treated as his brother in Christ with as much respect as any other member of the church. Many times we would have a personal conversation about things before anyone else arrived and he valued my opinion as well as I did his.

“ Junior was installing a sound system in our new church building at Rosewood in 1982. I arrived at the church one day, and heard someone singing from the sound room. He was singing "The King is Coming" to the top of his lungs not knowing anyone else was around the church. I went to the sound room and greeted him and complimented him on his singing and the song. He related how he believed the King is coming. We agreed. I know from the faith Junior has expressed all his life that the King truly came for him last Monday.

Our prayers are with Mrs. Dorothy, Larry, Shirley, and all the Lansdale family.

Brotherly,

Charles Johnson
