An amazing story and service. I have no doubts that this Pastor is blessed by the HOLY SPIRIT, so is Justin. As a Combat Veteran myself, I know the horrors of war that we see and live with daily. The loneliness, the feelings of abandonment and fear. Yes, fear which we put deep inside of us, that is when we gain the courage and faith to continue, day by day. Our faith in Christ Jesus and the fellowship we share with those who stand and fight with us, allows us to survive. Combat PTSD is something that cannot be explained to others who have not walked in our boots. No medical treatment can ever resolve this deep trauma we have suffered and now have to deal with when we come home. Justin was truly blessed that he found a friend in his Paster. A friend who he could trust, who truly listen, and who obviously consoled him. A friend who guided Justin back 'on the path' back to Jesus Christ. He has valiantly fought the enemies of God by wearing the 'Full Armor of God'. Wounded he was able to rise again, as Apostle Paul told in Paul's Letter to the Ephesians 6:11-20. Knew Justin as a young boy who loved life and asked me hundreds of questions when we visited Big Spring or Midland, Tx. I look forward to seeing Justin talking to Jesus Christ and asking him 'hundreds of questions'! I am at peace knowing that I too will have him close by and holding him again! May the Lord bless him and may he continue to bless his parents, family, and friends!..... I am and will remain his Uncle Freddy G. Martinez.
