“ I’m Sharon Higginbotham Kenny’s 1st cousin. To my disappointment I missed the service . A fond memory of Kenny was that he always was smiling . We were only mos. apart by age . We would run into the woods and make our younger brothers stay at home . We laughed at trying to hide from Danny and Michael. He blessed each person he encountered . I know he’ll be missed. He’s with our Lord now and we have another chance to see him one day. Thank you to all that cared for him. My deepest sympathy for his wife and daughter as well as Aunt Ardell and Danny. Love, Sharon
