“ Kenny has his own niche in my heart. He was my brother in Christ, my friend, a great story teller, and a knowledgeable historian.

Kenny will be remembered as a one of a kind fella. He definitely made lasting impressions and was genuinely sincere about getting to know people. He shared much of his writing with me, and it expressed his concern for his fellow man. He leaves the sweetest wife and adoring family to cherish him. May God bless him for all the questions he sought answers for about salvation.
