“ I was so sad to hear of Kym's passing. She was a person who lit up the room. We first met years ago in massage school. She was so smart and creative, with a mind that went a mile a minute. She was a great massage therapist, a wonderful mother and a good friend. She always would laugh at the comments made by my "talking dogs" . My heart goes out to the entire Muse family. You are all in my prayers.

“ Sending lots of love and prayers to the Muse Family at this difficult time. Kym was such a vibrant, beautiful woman who radiated love and joy to everyone in her presence. We met Kym at Mike and Franny's wedding. It was an honor and such a fun opportunity to get to know her as we prepared and decorated cupcakes for the wedding reception! I didn't know Kym very well, but know that she touched a lot of lives and made life a brighter place for so many people.

May you find comfort and cherish the happy memories of her during this difficult time. Know that while this temporary separation is so hard, the reunion you will have with her again one day will be so, so great.

May you feel her presence as your guardian angel in the meantime.

Much Love,

Holly & Don Mendenhall & Family

“ I am so sorry to learn of this funeral. I know this is not the way to mention this, but I have been trying to get in touch with the Muse family. I have digitized some old home movies of the family that you would like to see, but I need your phone number so I can send you a message with the link to the movie. Please let me (Bill Grubbs) know at 801-299-9200.

“ Remembering Kym and her vivacious personality! She always put an extra effort into any calling and activity she was in charge of. I'm thankful my grandsons had the opportunity to have her as an Early Morning Seminary teacher in the Longview 2nd Ward. She taught the lessons in her own creative style with on the floor games, etc. Kym will be greatly missed, but we know she is busy with good works and we will see her again 🙏❤️

“ Kym was always a ray of sunshine. she was always dressed in bright colors. kym always had a big smile on her face. always funny. one thing I will always remember, is, Owen always had his arm around her and Kym had her head layed on his shoulder. our sister in Christ will be missed but not forgotten. this is one angel that will be with us daily

“ The best advice I was ever given on motherhood came from Kym. We were sitting in her craft room talking and she told me essentially, "Your child belonged to Heavenly Father before she'll ever belong to you. He'd never send His child to you without helping you along the way. Read whatever parenting books you'd like, but in the end, Heavenly Father will tell you what's best for your child, and how you should raise her. He will let you know what's right."

Kym was light. Sunshine. Joy. She was quick to tell me when I needed an attitude adjustment ;) but was also there to hold my hand if I was ever depressed or injured. She came to my aid many times in the short 3 years I knew her. She was easy to talk to, and easy to get along with. I love her and I miss her. I would not be surprised if her patriarchal blessing tells her that she has a special spirit with the capacity to bless the lives and lift the hearts of EVERYONE around her. That's who she was to me. A mother figure. A friend. A role model. A safe place.

Kym, I will strive to be a light to others the way you definitely have. What a legacy you leave behind. Till we meet again, my beautiful friend. <3

“ Kym was one of the first people I met when my family moved to Gilmer in 1982. I have such great memories of our Senior year at GHS. Although we didn't talk on a daily basis, we still found a way to connect over the years, through calls, text, birthday cards, Facebook, Facebook messenger.... Kym had a great imagination and creativity. She even wrote a short story about "The Button Sisters", which I still have. Kym always remembered my family and would send us the cutest handmade Christmas Cards every year. Kym never met a stranger and never turned anyone away. Always willing to help out in a time of need. Kym enjoyed life to the fullest, in everything she did, and it showed. "Katie Button", I will miss you dearly. "Aef Button"

Her Personality & Heart was infectious. A delight to just be around. I 1st met her when our kids were in Elementary. Then we had a lingure part at my house. What fun. I always thought she was a beauty in all ways. About a month or so we met up at Ross and there she was trying on a dress on the floor over her clothes. Just so FUN. and We ran into each other at Sonic & had a few giggles. I was wishing then I saw more of her. Sending my Love Kathy Wolter

“ The loveliest of sister-in-laws. Fun, unselfish, caring. When our daughter had cancer, Kym didn't wait to be asked-she just came over once a week and gave our daughter a massage, which was the only time she had any real relief from pain. She did that until our daughter passed away. Nothing was too much trouble for Kym. She made the most beautiful cards for me to use when I worked with the Young Women of our church. I didn't even have to ask! How I loved her. I will miss her for the rest of my life. She was a beautiful, wonderful, unique person.

“ Omg! I was so shocked to hear about Kym, I worked next to her when she worked for Eric Brevard, Mattie used to come and stay many hours at my salon, and keep me company, my prayers go out to the whole family, God got another angel when he got Kym. The kindest person I've ever met that was so uplifting. I'm sorry I missed her services as I just saw her obit. Kym was so loved by so many people. Rest In Peace dear lady!

“ I did not know Kym for long, but man was she a ray of sunshine. She always had a hug and treated you like her long lost friend from high school. She was such a kind and giving person. I was in shock when I heard. My heart goes out to her family. She seemed so excited for this new chapter she was starting. Rest high my friend and keep on smiling.

“ Owen, Mallory, Mickey, Maddie and family, Y'all are in our hearts and prayers. I had a wonderful memory of your mother the other day. I wish I could find a picture and send to you. When she was Spencer's teacher in primary each kiddo went to her house and made cookies to bring home to their family. We met your mom in town because we had to go somewhere and she picked Spencer up in her yellow convertible. It was a beautiful time of the year so the top is down and she had these big sunglasses that Spencer put on. I don't even remember if she took a picture or we did but I guess it was us because she was in the picture. She was a great teacher to this group of wild boys and a couple of sweet girls. Ken and I will always have that snapshot memory in our hearts and minds of your mom ❤️

Kim was such a special person. Always with a smile on her face. You automatically felt better just by seeing her. One Sunday we were leaving church and she was holding her granddaughter's hand and my sister and I were walking ahead of them and she asked Kym if the two white headed lady's were Angel's. I will never forget Kym's smile as she told us. My heart and prayers go out to her family.

“ I remember Kym as a teenager and she was always fun and energetic to be around. After we all got married every that knew Kym knew that she was the one to ask for help when it came to arts and crafts. She was the kindest person one could meet. One could only wish that they could be the type of person that Kym was. Love and miss you sweet Kym!

“ Kym was always one to make the most of any situation. I remember one year it snowed a foot in Kelsey, TX. She and I attempted to build an igloo, till our hands were about frozen. I recall making boats out of old dead pieces of wood and racing them in a portion of Kelsey Creek...another of Kym's fabulous and fun ideas. I also remember her asking Ronda Johnson and I to help at her wedding reception, after she and Owen had married. What an honor! I will always remember her with fondness. I cherish the memory of her sunshiny personality, and the way she made others feel happy. May she rest in peace. Kym will surely be missed.

“ Kym was one special lady. She was the one you wanted to sit next to. She was the one that would do anything she could to help you. She was the one who could make you smile. She was the one who could think of something unusual. She was the one who made everyone feel loved. She was the one in yellow. She was the one as bright as the sun. She is the one that will never be forgotten. She is the one flying high, so very high.

Her family are all in my prayers. Let her memories carry you through the days and years ahead. Love to all “ Kym was one of a kind for sure! We could always pick up right where we left off no matter the time or distance that may have passed between visits. Kym's smile was infectious. Her laughter intoxicating and her tears genuine. My heart breaks for those that loved her the most. Kym's passing has torn a hole in the universe that can only be repaired with memories as we navigate without this beautiful soul. Love and prayers for the family. Rest in peace my friend, it was indeed a great honor to call Kym Deason Muse my friend, until we meet again.

“ This past year, I got to know Kym really well. When I found out I was expecting twins, she called me and said she wanted to gift me a free massage for every month of the pregnancy. And when I lost one of the babies, she called me and cried with me on the phone. She was so generous with her time and talents. I looked forward to it each month not just for the massage, but for the company. She was so fun to talk to! We would talk about motherhood, the gospel, and sometimes we gossiped too...! I loved working with her in primary for several years. And even though she sang off key, she put so much love into her calling and into the kids. I will so miss her handmade cards, and I feel so lucky to have received some over the years. I will miss her festive dresses for every holiday, and her love of the color yellow. She was a true friend to me, and her family is in my prayers. You are so missed, Kym!
