

Malissa Diane Davis

January 22, 1970 - October 8, 2021

Celebration of life for Malissa Diane Davis, 51, of Longview, Texas is pending. Arrangements are under the direction of McWhorter Funeral Home.

Malissa was born January 22, 1970, in Dallas, Texas, to Sandra Sue Davis and passed from this life October 8, 2021, in Longview, Texas.

Malissa worked at McLendon Cleaners in Longview. She was a faithful member of The Church at West Mountain. Malissa was a loving mother and grandmother. She loved Jesus and her family.

Malissa was the definition of an overcomer. She had been through a lot in her life and through that she came to know the Lord. She dedicated her life to helping others by using her own past. She graduated from the genesis program and received her certificate to teach it to others. She encouraged them and their family members as well. She even developed a relapse prevention plan. She had worked hard to get to where she was. She was 8 1/2 years sober. Malissa also graduated from Heartisans. Her greatest accomplishment was over coming her past and helping others and rebuilding the relationships with her children. She had light in her that shined so bright and her smile alone could light up a room. She lived her life to the fullest and made each day count. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

2 Corinthians 12:8-9; Jeremiah 29:11

Those left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Teresa Mosier and her husband, Shawn; sons, Timothy Johnson and his wife, Marielena, and Shawn Johnson; brother, Ronald Canup; and her grandchildren, Keith Mosier, Hailey

Mosier, Adalyn Johnson, and Elijah Johnson.

Please visit Malissa's on-line registration book at www.mcwhorterfh.com to leave a memory for the family.

“ I came to know Malissa through my time of volunteering at Heartisans. I picked her up while she was at Sonshine Lighthouse and we spent that time on the road sharing stories of our lives and the difference that knowing Jesus has made. We were from two totally different walks of life, yet the common thread of knowing Christ drew us together. I am soooo grateful for the moments that we shared as friends. She did so much more for me than I could have ever possibly done for her. Heaven is richer today, because she is there!!! I look forward to the day when I, too, will meet my Savior and reunite with those that I love that have gone before me. May Jesus be near to your broken hearts, & hold you as you grieve. I am sooo sorry for your loss.

“ Malissa was a true follower of Christ and a testimony of a life transformed by the blood of Jesus. She was sweet, and loving and lived a life of purpose and dedication. She adored her children and grandchildren more than anything. She will be missed, but I know she is dancing with her Savior.
