Sorry, accidentally posted before I finished. She had Bobby Daylan, and I had my son. Both our sons were just tots. I had connected with her and Bobby Jack in the last few years. I am glad I got to visit with her. We both lost our sons,so we knew as mothers the grief of loosing a child. I know she has complete peace now, no more grief. To her husband, children and other members of her family I am sorry for your loss. Margaret will be missed. Love from an old friend.
