“ Denise was the most caring person I ever knew. She put everyone before herself. I can remember when she would be over here cleaning my house. I would get in from work and she would still be here. I had to just make her leave. I would have to say Denise you have done enough so go. Of course I would have been fine with her staying to visit, but she wanted to keep working. I loved her so much. I'm so sorry for your loss.
