“ I absolutely admired Matt for the way he doted, loved and cared for his ladies! He is a wonderful example of a godly husband and father. I will miss his wit and southern charm. His insight and discussions during Bible study were always enjoyable and something to ponder. Susan, Faith, Grace...you guys are truly blessed by the gift of having him for yourselves! Prayers for you all during this time. Just a little longer, then we will see him again!

“ Mr. Tommy and Mrs. Alva, and Tonya— It’s just not right. Mat is gone too soon. I’m praying for comfort for you all. Mat was one of the best- just good to the core and easy and fun to be around.

Susan, Grace, and Faith— it was obvious that he was so proud of his family. I’m praying for you. Faith and Grace- I’m sending a virtual hug. Your dad would light up when he would talk about you. You brought him joy.

“ We will certainly miss MAT here on earth, We have missed him since he moved away from Longview a few years ago. He was such a great and faithful servant to the Lord and I know that he was a blessing to Susan and the girls. We are praying for God's peace that passes all understanding to overtake the Taylor family at this time!

“ We are very saddened to learn of our dear friend and former neighbor's passing away so untimely. Our Prayers and heartfelt condolences are being extended to you all. We will always cherish the precious memories shared with much gratitude to God for the time that we shared with the family. He will be deeply missed by us all. Although your hearts are heavy now, realize that God makes no mistakes and He is your strength during this time of weakness. Thank You Lord for allowing us to meet Mat, Susan, Grace, Faith along with other family members. To God Be The Glory!
