“ The loss of Nancy is so unexpected and so hard to reconcile. When my husband was dying I asked him to come back and leave me a sign that he was still there. It was through Nancy that the sign was given to me. I love Nancy and Lew and appreciate their love shown to me as friends. Prayers for the family and Lew that peace will come. ❤️

“ To Nancy’s children, I know that you all know this, but I want you to know that I think your mom was one of the kindest, most selfless, patient , long-suffering people I have ever known. Our family dearly loves her and I smile when I think about her as she greeted her “brothers”, of course the Conley boys were her cousins, but she enjoyed calling them her brothers because she had no other siblings.

And Lew, you gave Nancy some very happy years. We were very pleased when you joined our family. Thank you.

May all of you take comfort in knowing that you will see her again.

Love,

Aunt Diana

“ Nancy was so special. Always smiling. Kind sweet Lady. I loved her for her sweet and gentle ways and did not spend as much time with her as maybe could have been. Every Christmas she brought me a Christmas ornament and the last one was put by my husband's framed photo last Christmas. It is still there. She was a precious person and will be so ever missed. I read one time that for the garden of Heaven, Our Heavenly Father picks the most beautiful souls for His Flower Garden. You are there Nancy. Pat Russell and my beloved husband who wanders some place around there also. We all love you.

“ When I visited Nancy & Mr. Miller a few years ago, Nancy was the epitome of a gracious southern belle. Her hospitality, generosity, & kindness were ever present & her effervescent personality made the visit a true Texas homecoming. I will forever be grateful I was blessed with getting to know her beauty inside & out. With love, Amy Sue Fryer ☐

“ Nancy and I became acquainted while attending Tyler Junior College. We had the pleasure of performing with the Apache Belles during the 60's. More recently, on occasion, we shared visits to the TJC campus to enjoy Apache Belle events. Nancy was a beautiful, caring and sweet lady. She will be missed greatly by all that knew her. Prayers for her family, friends, and all who knew her.
