“ Nanette was in my Primary and Young Women classes when I was teaching the girls at Church Her family and mine were good friends. Janell and Nanette were close friends. I worked with her mother in Primary and we are still good friends. I pray that you will all feel comfort and peace from Our Heavenly Father and that He will strengthen you. My love to you all.

“ Nanette was a good friend. I enjoyed spending the night with her as teen, reading books until time for sleep.. it was special to be around her parents and siblings back in the 60s. My thoughts and prayers are with her mother, siblings, children and grandchildren. She always had high goals in high school.
