“ Aunt Nina was always so glamorous to me. Whether at the house on Hanover or Lakeshore as a kid, at Gin and Gramps’ on Sunday, or in Montevallo when Mama and Daddy were there with her and Leon playing cards. She always looked strikingly beautiful to me and was so funny! Always enjoyed being around her and I will always remember her dark hair, piercing eyes, and beautiful smile - I thought she was just like a movie star. Wishing everyone who loved her peace from good memories. Love, Michele Gass (Payne)
