“ Francis & James were my cousins. James was the oldest cousin from the Z.V. Davis Family, & I was the youngest. We were the Alpha & Omega of a great & proud Family. I bonded with James because of that. James & Francis were some of the most intelligent & talented people I ever knew. I was proud of them & all they accomplished. I was proud of the sons they brought into this world, We all had to work hard in life, and James & Francis taught their sons to work hard. James & Frances left a legacy that anyone would envy. My sister-in-law (Sharon Davis Jones) & Francis had a special friendship. I have talked to Sharon many times this week, and I can tell you for sure - she is heartbroken. She is grieving for a family member & a dear friend. Francis, I was always honored to be your cousin. All of the Davis Family was proud you chose us. May you rest in Pease, dear Lady. Heaven knows, you never took a break in life. All of my Love to your family & friends, and you had so very many.
