“ I remember working with him in the meat market at Brookshire's in Longview (the OLD #45) I was just a young teen and he was an encouragement to me.
He was a very dear man. My sincerest condolences to all of the family.

“ One of my favorite memories of Norm: When I was much younger, Norm asked me one time if I wanted to go out and feed the cows with him. Sure, seems pretty straightforward. A little feed here, maybe some molasses there. But ole Norm instead pulled out a box of Donuts, and the cows came running. Turns out he used to feed them donuts every day.

Norm always, always had a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye. As if there was always a joke he was about to tell you. I got so used to his young spirit, I think I just assumed he would live forever. You will be missed, Norm. Sending much love and strength to Deana and the rest of the family!

“ Uncle Norman. A true original. Goodhearted, down to earth, he bore malice to no one. He always had a sly twinkle in his eye. Quick with a smile, a laugh, a joke. Always humble, and the amazing family he raised up is a testament to what a wonderful person he was. He will be terribly missed by all who knew him.
