“ I have lots of memories of my uncle Paul. Some of them are, like it has been mentioned we loved to visit and play volleyball and sit around a bonfire and my most favorite is setting with him and aunt Lynn at band stand and the parade during the yamboree. He will be greatly missed give aunt Lynn a big hug for me and cindy. Until we meet again RIP

“ This man was one of my favorite uncles, I practically grew up at his and my aunt Lillians house. They always welcomed me in there home everytime I ran threw there pasture to get there. There was always fun times playing volleyball or just being with family and friends. Uncle Paul you will be missed, and give aunt Lillian a hug for me.
