

Randy Garriott

September 13, 1955 - May 9, 2025

Randy Garriott, 69, of Ore City, was born on September 13, 1955, in Springdale, Arkansas, to Kenneth Garriott and Joann Faulkner Garriott and passed from this life on May 9, 2025, at his home in Ore City.

Randy was a car enthusiast. He enjoyed working with cars and loved building hot rods. If a car had a problem, all Randy had to do was listen to it, and then he knew what was wrong and how to fix it. Randy proudly served our country in the United States Army, where he learned his mechanic trade.

He is survived by his children, Trey Chaney, Mendy Garriott, Kenneth Garriott, and James Garriott; the mother of his children, Deana Garriott; sister, Polly Garriott; grandchildren, John, Lily, Ryder, Nathan, Lexi, Paxton, Saber, Kamburlee, Duel, and Kayle; and great grandchildren, Caden, Arya, and Raelyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth and Joann Garriott; and his sister, Judy Bible.

A service will be held on a future date to celebrate Randy's life.

Please visit Randy's online registration book at www.mcwhorterfh.com to leave a memory for the family.

Tribute Wall

DG

“ There are to many to post.

Deana Garriott - May 15, 2025 at 09:41 AM

DM

“ I've known Randy for many years,, he was a friend that would help out in any way he could, was a kind person with a careing heart. Heaven recieved a beautiful soul, RIP my friend, till we meet again. 🙌👍

Diane Mabry - May 15, 2025 at 06:08 AM

CB

“ Uncle Randy I love and miss you with all my heart I know by now you sitting up there visiting with family and friends watching over all of us I will forever remember spending time at the hill and going to the lake to fish

Chris Basaldua - May 14, 2025 at 08:24 PM