“ Peanut was one of the few people who actually called me by my full name-Atina. I can still see his smiling handsome face saying 'hey Atina'. Even though we lost touch after high school, I have always considered him a great friend.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Peanut's passing. I always thought he was such a cute kid! My sister dated his brother in high school and we were close to their family. Tom was like a brother, and Peanut and Jamie were the cutest kids! Also Bonnie was such a pretty lady and a cool Mom! I didn't know James, but remember Tom coming over during a snow storm in James' baby blue truck and he, Leann, and I went riding in the snow, spinning donuts! It was fun and scary! I remember thinking if we tear up James' truck, he's going to be sooo mad. :)

So sorry and prayers to the Pierce family! Love you all!

“ I let Peanut and Pookey Seahorn play on the 7th and 8th grade Jr. High football team when they were in the sixth grade. They were both tough enough and athletically gifted to compete with the older boys at that age, and we were needing some extra players.

When Peanut ran a dairy on Cedar Road, I turned my school bus around twice a day at their residence to pick up Randi. I saw him often then, but later lost contact.

My prayers and the prayers of our church family are with the Pierce family. They have been good friends since moving to Harmony in 1976. May the Holy Spirit be a Great Comforter to you in your mourning.

Brotherly,

Charles Johnson

“ Peanut we had some really good times in High School. I never thought that after I left school and got married that I would ever see you again. 2018 it was the BEST Memories of my life you made me smile and I love you more than anyone ever. Old Cowboy I'm still single and I'm here in Gilmer for 4th of July had this trip planned for awhile to bring my mom down to see her family and go visit my little brother in prison in Bryan Texas and was going to sneak up on you and your mom to surprise you. I'm so sad and heartbroken. Talking to you for a few years was the best you were such a good dad Paw and my friend. I'm so glad God brought us together for awhile. Your girls are wonderful and love there paw so much. Fly High Cowboy and I'll see you when the good lord says it's my time. Forever in my heart and I will love you until I die.
