“ Robert was a unique individual to say the least. Spent lots of hours with him catching chickens back in the 60's. That was back when if you wanted anything you had to work for it. We also spent lots of time hunting arrow heads together. I guess i knew him and Jesse better than the rest of his family but our prayers are with all his loved ones. If you don't understand the picture on this page, then you didn't know Robert. To all his family and friends, sorry for your loss.
