Roland was born on September 6, 1937, in Upshur County, Texas to Nathaniel Clarence Lambert and Thelma Marie Box Lambert and passed from this life on January 30, 2025, in Longview, Texas at Longview Regional Hospital.

Roland graduated from Harmony High School and soon after went to serve our country in the 49th Armored Division of the United States Army for the National Guard. His first job was working at LeTourneau, where he built copper coils. Roland then worked for East Texas Motor Freight and later Arkansas Best Freight, where he retired after 40 years. Youngblood; grandchildren, Nathaniel Fino, Sadie Lambert McGarvey, Connor Lambert, and Caden Lambert; and step-grandchildren, David Egner, Lauren Egner, Lacey Adkins, Hunter Hux, and Jaxon Jenkins.

I knew Roland all my life, but have not seen him in years. A fond memory I have of him is him singing Vaya Con Dios with Shirley Johnson during a program at Harmony School. He was wearing a sombrero and really looked the part. Fond memories of him and all his brothers.
