

Sheila Bailey Caldwell

December 29, 1955 - June 15, 2024

Sheila Gail Caldwell, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and career woman, passed away on June 15, 2024, at the age of 68. She was born on December 29, 1955, in Gilmer, TX, and most recently resided in Longview, TX.

Sheila had a heart full of love for her family, and her favorite pastime was spending quality time with them. She adored her husband, Joseph W. Caldwell, and was a devoted stepmother to Craig, Jessica, and Kevin Caldwell. Sheila was also a proud mother to her sons Jesse Reagh and Kaleb Caldwell, and the cherished grandmother of Makenna and Adam Caldwell.

Sheila made a significant impact in her professional career. She worked as a nurse, served as the Phlebotomy Lab Manager at ProLab, and headed the Auditing Department and Customer Service at MCL Labs. Her strong work ethic was admired by all who knew her.

In her free time, Sheila enjoyed indulging in her favorite foods, especially mashed potatoes and gravy. She also had a soft spot for the music of Elvis Presley and Red Sovine. Sheila found solace in the comfort of her home, which she considered her favorite place in the world. She loved watching old Western shows on ME TV and she loved watching ice skating.

Sheila will be remembered for her good-hearted nature, her dedication to her family, and her belief in the principle that one reaps what they sow. She leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness that touched the lives of everyone she encountered. Sheila's memory will forever live on in the hearts of her husband, children, and grandchildren; father, Jesse Bailey; sisters and brothers-in-law, Debbie and Gene McKinley, Kim and Bobby Jenkins, Sharon and Ben Haywood, Susie Spears; and sisters-in-law Sharon Clark and Bettie Theriot, as well as numerous extended family members and friends.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Clara Bailey; and her brother-in-law, Larry Spears.

A celebration of Sheila's life will be held on a later date to honor the remarkable woman she was. Arrangements are under the direction of McWhorter Funeral Home.
