“ Stephen and I were missionary companions back in 1987 and stayed friends ever since. I am saddened at hearing the news of his passing. The picture I have included was from Dec 2021 when he attended the wedding reception of my daughter. I'm sure glad we were able to see each other that day. You will be missed my friend!

“ I have known Stephen for years, ever since we were in Single Adults together. He was a great friend and a wonderful companion. He accompanied me to alot of great, fun activities. He was my mom's escort when I got married. He attended my dad's funeral and held our hands in sympathy. He and I played duets together sometimes, he on the organ and me on the piano. I will miss seeing his food posts on Facebook and chatting with him thru Messenger. I hope you find peace, my dear friend. ❤️❤️

“ Stephen and I sang together in a couple of choirs, and he was my favorite friend in the choir. I haven't been on social media as much as I used to, so I didn't even know he was gone. We would message a few times a year, so I came looking for him today, his birthday. I miss his concern for others, his lovely sense of humor, and his sweet, warm voice.

“ I wish I had been notified but I know I took care of him as best I could hear in Salt Lake City. We were great friends and I supported him through some of his roughest times but my best memory is when he played Popcorn Popping on the Apricot Tree as part of the prelude music at my brother in law's funeral because everyone said he wouldn't dare. There wasn't much Steve wouldn't dare!

“ Stephen was always the businessman, even when he was in my first few Ag. Classes at Harmony. He sold me 10 or 15 old roosters once, he had down in a barn, even helped me load them (Dick W. Pirkey, Jr.)

“ Stephen was my cousin. Not my 1st cousin, but still my cousin. My 1st cousin parents were my Aunts and Uncles. When I was young, I did not understand why Stephen was my cousin and his parents were not my Aunts and Uncles. So all my life I've called his parents Aunt Willie Faye, and Uncle Wilburn. I know the difference now of course, but that changes nothing for me. We always teased and he called me his sister from another Mister, and I called him my brother from another mother. We were the same age and went to the same school and church. We were very close. I was lucky to have him as my friend above all else. I treasured his friendship. Till we meet again, I love you. ❤️
