Mrs. Vicki used to come into Kohl's in Longview all the time. She was always a nice person, and I liked assisting her when she and Mr. Jackie came in to shop. She always had great tastes in outfits and jewelry. I was very sad when I heard that she passed away after I hadn't seen her come in in a long while. May she rest in peace.

“ Vicki was My 1st Cousin on My Dads side with Her Mother Pat. I saw Vicki throughout Our Adult years at funerals and get togethers with the Family. I remember Her vividly from Our childhood at our Grandparents home in Dekalb. She was always happy, vivacious, never at a loss for words like Me but My lasting remembrance of Vicki is that of a dynamic Mother to Her Children. And most importantly, Her love for Christ as Her Savior. She is reunited with Her Mother Pat, Her Father Charles, Our Grandparents, Her Granddaughter and all Our Aunts and Uncles that have gone before.

God Speed My dear Cousin In Christ and See You When I too Shall Fly Away.
